

2023 South Australian State Billiards

CONGRATULATIONS

Peter UDYCZ

Winning This Years Billiards Title

In a repeat of last year's final, Peter Udcyz claimed his 17th SA State Billiards title with a resounding victory over defending champion Arthur Karanis. Udcyz, who went into the final as the form player, dominated the match from the outset, quickly establishing a 100-point lead over his opponent and never looking back.

The four hour match play final proved to be an entertaining affair, with Udcyz showcasing his impressive form throughout. He notched up eight 50+ breaks, including a top score of 69, while Karanis's best break was a 50. Udcyz's highest break in the tournament was an impressive 107, and his dominant play cemented his status as the clear favorite going into the final.

Udycz's win is a testament to his remarkable consistency over the years. This was his 29th final in 32 years of competing, and no player got close to him in the tournament. Speaking after the match, Udycz credited his success to his improved form, stating that he is currently playing the best he ever played.

Overall, Udycz's victory was a well-deserved one, and he stands as the most successful Billiards players in South Australia's history. His impressive form and dominance in the tournament are sure to inspire future generations of billiards players in the State.
